

TO: James L. App, City Manager
FROM: Jim Throop, Director of Administrative Service
SUBJECT: KPRL Advertising Contract for Transit
DATE: August 5, 2008

NEEDS:

For the City Council to approve a contract with KPRL radio for advertising services related to the Transit System for the Fiscal Year 2009.

FACTS:

1. Paso Robles has been advertising its Transit System with KPRL for over 10 years.
2. Radio advertising has been an effective marketing tool for the Transit System.
3. KPRL radio is a local station, based in Paso Robles and reaches its riders every day.
4. Radio ads will be broadcast at the following times:
 - a. 6:12am during the "Morning Exchange"
 - b. 12:05pm during "Noon News"
 - c. Sponsor of the City of Paso Robles Council Meetings, both opening and closing
 - d. Approximately 30 additional free slots at random times during the week

ANALYSIS &
CONCLUSION:

The City has enjoyed a successful advertising relationship with KPRL Radio for more than 10 years. This contract will continue to provide a cost-effective advertising program. KPRL is the only local radio station and it enjoys a wide-audience appeal, which benefits the advertising of the Transit System.

FISCAL IMPACT:

Advertising costs are included in the transit budget for Fiscal Year 2009.

OPTIONS:

- a. Approve the Contract with KPRL radio for advertising services for $14,280.
- b. Amend, modify or reject the above option.
