DISCUSSION:

1. Earthquake 2003: Recovery – Red-tagged Building Access

J. App, City Manager

Consider merchant's request for limited entry to buildings that have been red-tagged as extremely hazardous and unsafe for entry.

OPTIONS:

- a. Deny request for limited entry until the property owner's engineer recommends, receives City approval for, and mitigates the hazards.
- b. Allow limited entry to red-tagged buildings upon completion of the following:
 - Entry party's engineer prepares entry strategy;
 - All parties (merchant, property owner, entry party(s)) execute City liability waivers and indemnification agreements;
 - City Emergency Services personnel have reviewed the entry strategy (not for approval, but for rescue information);
 - Entry strategy is executed by appropriately licensed private professionals;
 - Qualified City Emergency Services equipment & personnel can be made available on scene during the entry.
- c. Amend, modify or reject the option above.
