CHAPTER 4 COMMUNICATIONS

4.1 COMMUNICATION GENERALLY

Because the City Council functions as a body, i.e., acting on a majority vote, it is important that members represent the City’s official position, or if expressing personal views, the public is so advised. To ensure that accurate City communications reach the public in a timely manner, the following shall apply.

4.2 CORRESPONDENCE

4.2.1 Once the City Council has taken a position on an issue, official correspondence shall reflect that position.

4.2.4 Councilmembers who disagree with a position may prepare correspondence on such issues as private citizens on personal stationery.

4.2.5 Councilmembers may transmit correspondence on issues that the Council has yet to take a position so long as the letters indicate that the author is not speaking for the Council. City stationery may be used for these purposes.

4.2.6 Councilmembers may prepare letters for constituents in response to inquiries or to provide requested information.

4.2.7 City stationery and staff support shall not be used for personal or campaign purposes.

- 4.5.4 In interacting with these bodies, Councilmembers are to reflect the views of the Council majority.
- 4.5.5 Councilmembers shall not engage in any ex parte communication with any member of a commission, board or committee regarding any quasi-judicial matter pending, or reasonably expected to come, before such a body.
