

RESOLUTION NO. 94- 63

A RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF EL PASO DE ROBLES AUTHORIZING APPROPRIATION OF FUNDS TO UNDERTAKE A FEASIBILITY ANALYSIS FOR THE ACQUISITION OF THE PASO ROBLES COUNTRY CLUB

WHEREAS, recently it was reported to the City Council that the Paso Robles Country Club was in the process of being foreclosed; and

WHEREAS, within the City's Economic Development Strategy the City had intended to allocate sufficient funds to look at a development of a public/municipal golf course within Paso Robles; and

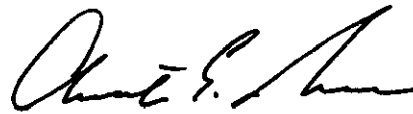

WHEREAS, the recently adopted work program did not include undertaking this project, but the Economic Strategy recognized the importance of acquiring a publicly owned golf course for the City; and

WHEREAS, with regard to the existing golf course within the City of Paso Robles, known as the Paso Robles Country Club, City Council directed staff to acquire information as to the cost for undertaking a feasibility study for said acquisition.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the City Council of the City of El Paso de Robles hereby authorizes an appropriation of $22,000 from unrestricted reserves to undertake a feasibility analysis for the acquisition of the Paso Robles Country Club.

PASSED AND ADOPTED by the City Council of the City of El Paso de Robles, this 19th day of April 1994, on the following vote:

AYES:	Heggarty, Macklin, Martin, Picanco, and Iversen
