

RESOLUTION NO. 98-93

A RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL
OF THE CITY OF EL PASO DE ROBLES
ENDORING PROPOSITION 220 CONCERNING COURT
CONSOLIDATION ON THE JUNE 2, 1998 BALLOT

WHEREAS, Proposition 220, which will appear on the June 2, 1998 ballot, would permit upon a majority vote of the judges of each court (Superior and Municipal) that the trial courts in any particular county would be fully consolidated into a single organization; and

WHEREAS, Proposition 220 has received broad support from all sectors of our State, both public and private, including the League of California Cities, California State Association of Counties, Judicial Council, and many others; and

WHEREAS, the courts in this and other counties have made tremendous efforts in the past few years to improve their procedures, operations, and policies, which has resulted in improved efficiencies and greater access to the judicial system for the citizens and residents of this State and our county; and

WHEREAS, Proposition 220 will allow those courts so inclined to fully consolidate and thus enable the highest possible level of efficiency and effectiveness; and

WHEREAS, a majority of the judges in San Luis Obispo are in favor of Proposition 220 and look forward to continuing the progressive efforts of the courts over the past few years.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the City Council of the City of El Paso de Robles does hereby endorse Proposition 220 concerning court consolidation, which will appear on the June 2, 1998 ballot.

PASSED AND ADOPTED by the City Council of the City of El Paso de Robles, this 19th day of May, 1998, by the following vote:

AYES: Baron, Iversen, Macklin, Swanson, and Picanco
NOES: None
ABSENT: None

Duane J. Picanco, Mayor

ATTEST:

Madelyn Paasch, City Clerk
