City Council Meeting Highlights from May 2, 2023

At its May 2, 2023 meeting, Paso Robles City Council did the following:

Read proclamations for Public Service Recognition Week, National Foster Care Month and National Travel and Tourism Week and California Tourism Month.

Received the Capital Projects Report, reviewing City construction projects that have been completed or are currently in process.

Received a Community Development Update, reviewing the various private development projects and City infrastructure and traffic circulation projects that are under construction, entitled or in the pipeline.

Held a Public Hearing to annex three parcels into Community Facilities District No. 2005-1 between Creston Road and Union Road.

Adopted the North County Broadband Strategic Plan, which will guide the City, in partnership with the City of Atascadero, in leading the county in broadband infrastructure to allow more residents and businesses access to better, less expensive and more reliable internet access.

Adopted a new Airport Leasing Policy and Leasing Strategy that establishes equitable and consistent terms to support future Airport operations and is consistent with state law and FAA guidance. The policy will be reviewed in one year.

This is a subset of items considered by City Council. The full agenda can be found at www.prcity.com/meetings.

City Council Meeting Highlights from June 6, 2023

At its June 6, 2023 meeting, Paso Robles City Council did the following:

Read a proclamation in honor of Juneteenth.

Received a presentation from Amtrak on its San Joaquins services.

Received the annual update from the Utilities Department, reporting on recently completed projects and activities in the City's Water, Wastewater and Recycled Water divisions

Received the annual update from the Public Works Department reporting on completed street repairs and upcoming street and infrastructure projects.

Held a Public Hearing for the annual levy of Landscape & Lighting Maintenance District No. 1 and Drainage Maintenance District 2008-1 and approved staff's recommendations for annual levy and service increases or decreases, depending on resident votes in each subarea.

Received a 90-day review of the Downtown On-Street Parking Program and took action to extend the contract with Flowbird to manage the parking app and kiosk software with no changes to the 2 free hours for parking (after registering your license plate) and $2 per hour after that. Councilmembers Bausch and Gregory will sit on a limited duration ad hoc committee with support from the Parking Coordinator to discuss the future of downtown parking. Ad hoc findings will be brought back to council by September 2023.

This is a subset of items considered by City Council. The full agenda can be found at www.prcity.com/meetings.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

SafetyFest

Through a volunteer-based community safety initiative PASOSafe™, Paso Robles based Safe America Movement LLC (SAM4USA) has created a relationship with North SLO County Community Emergency Response Team (C.E.R.T.) and City of Paso Robles Fire & Emergency Services, to host a life family fun event in the Downtown City Park. SafetyFest offers attendees free information on all things safety related. Volunteers are needed to assist with set-up, hospitality (assisting vendors, delivering supplies, etc.) and clean-up.

Saturday, June 3, 2023, 10am-3pm at Downtown City Park

Volunteer shift times are 8am-12pm, or 3-5pm.

Earth Shine Cleanup Days

Earth Shine is a Paso Robles based non-profit dedicated to the continued beautification of our community, as well as cities throughout SLO County. In addition to coordinating Paso Robles' Adopt-a-Street program, Earth Shine organizes a Salinas River cleanup day on the third Saturday of each month at the River Walk in Paso Robles.

Saturday, June 17, 2023 at 10am-12pm. The group meets behind Wendy's on Niblick Road.

Earth Shine's full list of dates is available at earthshineorg.com

Concerts in the Park

Paso Robles Concerts in the Park are free, family friendly, community events held in City Park in the heart of downtown Paso Robles. The concerts are coordinated and staffed by Recreation Services, and all proceeds from the concerts benefit the REC Foundation, a local non-profit dedicated to enhancing recreational opportunities in Paso Robles. Volunteer tasks include concession sales and event clean-up.

Thursday evenings: June 15, 22, 29, July 13, 20, August 3, 10, 17 and 25. Volunteer shifts are 5pm-8:30pm.
