

Disaster Preparedness for Companion Animals

What would you do with your pet if you had to evacuate because of a wildfire, earthquake, flood, or other disaster? What if you are away from your pet when disaster strikes? Do you have a pet emergency kit and disaster preparedness plan? The North San Luis Obispo County Community Emergency Response Team (CERT) is offering a class where you can learn how to prepare your pets for disaster. Preparing before a disaster gives you the knowledge and confidence to better survive and recover from disasters.
